Success Story

Anandini Das, wife of late Jhadeswar Das residence of Kamarda village, District Balasore was sent by Hon'ble High court of Orissa to Odisha State Legal Services Authority for redressal of her grievance. The complainant on reaching at Odisha State Legal Services Authority had disclosed that she is being tortured by her Son and Daughter-in-law and also stated about her poor health condition. Food was immediately given to her and at the same time Member Secretary, Odisha State Legal Services Authority had directed DLSA Cuttack for immediate medical treatment of the complainant. DLSA Cuttack had admitted the complainant at surgery ward of SCB Medical college Cuttack.

The Member Secretary Odisha State Legal Services Authority had also directed DLSA Balasore to look into the complaint of Mrs. Anandini Das and on dated 22.02.2022 the DLSA Balasore called the son and daughter-in-law of the complainant to the DLSA office for the purpose of discussion and amicable settlement and after hours of discussion finally the son and daughter-in-law of the complainant agreed to take the complainant back to her house. On dated 24.02.2023, the son of the complainant had arrived at SCB Medical college and wanted to take his mother with him. His mother also showed her willing to go with her son. After getting all the clearance, the complainant was discharged from SCB medical. Both the complainant and her son were taken to DLSA Cuttack where further amicable discussion was carried out. The son had agreed in writing to take care of his mother and to meet all the medical necessity of his mother in future. At that time an emotional moment was blossomed at medical premises and DLSA Cuttack as well.
